BIO

I have spent over 40 years in public accounting or in providing services to public accounting firms. I have held consulting partner positions with two “big four” firms and one large regional firm.

My areas of expertise include mergers and acquisitions, succession planning, complex problem solving, profitability and operations improvement, strategic business planning and cost management.

In addition, I have assisted in the development of firm methodologies for partner compensation, partner buy-in and buy-out, strategic planning and strategic systems development and implementation.

I grew up in Akron, Ohio, but have lived and worked in Cleveland, Dallas, Tampa and Kansas City. My goal in business has been to improve the lives of the business owners I serve and to assist in growing their business in an efficient and profitable manner.
