About Louis

Louis is a seasoned recruitment professional specializing in the placement of CPA and accounting professionals. With expertise in strategic planning, talent acquisition management, and full-cycle recruitment, Louis excels in networking, sourcing, and employer branding. He is dedicated to fostering diversity and inclusion while ensuring clients receive top-tier candidates.

Louis partners with clients to develop tailored recruitment strategies, leveraging social media, job boards, and recruiting databases to attract and hire exceptional talent. At Baker Tilly, where he served as Talent Acquisition Manager, Louis implemented innovative talent acquisition strategies, founded the Talent Intelligence team, and optimized internal recruitment processes, significantly lowering hiring costs.

Louis is adept at stakeholder engagement, collaborative leadership, team building, and mentoring, consistently resulting in successful long-term employment solutions that satisfy client hiring needs and support organizational goals. Outside of work, Louis is passionate about the outdoors and enjoys hiking, camping, and scuba diving.
