About Clariza

Clariza is a dedicated and results-driven recruiter with over five years of experience in full-cycle recruitment and global talent acquisition. She has successfully placed professionals across the US, Singapore, Malaysia, China, the Philippines, Australia, and Ireland, helping companies build strong, high-performing teams.

Her expertise spans multiple industries, and she has worked in both agency and in-house recruitment settings, giving her a well-rounded perspective on hiring strategies. She partners with businesses of all sizes to deliver customized talent solutions that align with their goals and hiring needs.

Clariza is a goal digger, constantly pushing herself to grow personally and professionally. She thrives in fast-paced environments, continuously refining her approach to sourcing, hiring, and employer branding. For her, recruitment is more than just filling roles—it's about connecting people with opportunities, shaping careers, and making a lasting impact.
